In just 10 days the Lenten fast will begin, and the “Gloria” will be silenced. For nearly 1500 years, the singing of the Gloria has been a sign of the festive quality of a particular Mass. These last few Sundays of winter Ordinary Time allow us a chance to savor the hymn and give ourselves over to the hymn. If you claim the song as yours, its absence from Lent will be more striking and its return at Easter will cheer your heart.

With Lent quickly approaching, we have obtained a limited quantity of The Magnificat Lenten Companion. This booklet fits easily in your pocket or purse and contains short, down-to-earth meditations and reflections on the Gospel reading for each day of Lent.

Please pick up one at the Church entrances next weekend and let this Lent be a time of spiritual growth and renewal.

Please bring your blessed palm branches that you have in your home from previous Palm Sunday celebrations. They will be burned and the ashes will be used next year on Ash Wednesday. Place them in the marked box that is in the vestibule.

It's almost time again for our Friday night Fish Fry at the school hall during Lent (4:30-7:00pm) beginning Feb. 24th. The proceeds from the fish fry benefit the Holy Name Scholarship Fund.

We are looking for past and present recipients of this scholarship fund to “give back” by working the fish fry. The volunteer sign-up sheets are at both entrances of the church for anyone interested in helping.

*Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

The Diocese of Covington’s next XLT (Exalt) for high school and college-aged youth will be held Sunday, February 19 at Thomas More College in the Holbrook Student Center. XLT consists of Praise and Worship led by local Musicians and Adoration of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament.

The Evening begins at 5 pm with pizza and drinks and continues with the XLT program from 5:30-7:30. The theme this month is “Love Religion and Love Jesus”. Speaker Chas Marks will speak on why as Catholics we are called to Love Religion and Love Jesus (A Catholic rebuttal on the YouTube video “Why I Hate Religion, but Love Jesus”). Music by “Someday Saints” from IHM Parish. Admission is free. No Registration required. See our bulletin boards for more information.

Austinburg Neighborhood Association will meet Monday, Feb 13 at 6:30 at Oakland Ave. Baptist Church (17th & Oakland). Covington Code Enforcement Officer, Keith Bales will attend the meeting.

Bishop Foys has declared this year a Year for Women Religious. During this year each of the five women religious communities will host one or more local celebrations highlighting particular aspects of their ministries and charisms. Please read the Messenger for articles about women religious and details about these celebrations. Everyone is invited to the opening Mass on Saturday, February 25 at 10:30am at the Cathedral Basilica.

Religious Liberty and Religious Freedom

Please visit the official website of the US Catholic Bishops for more information about the mandate, and for ways to make your voice known to our legislators @ www.usccb.org/conscience. As people of faith and as citizens, we cannot remain silent.

Donations for the children & adult raffle items are requested (new or handmade items are preferred) for the St Benedict Day craft table (March 18). Donations can be dropped off in the baskets located in church or call Kathy Volpenhein to pick donations up @431-4236.
